PRODUCTION & ART DIRECTION

Nike PDP+ photography is an enhanced editorial set of images supporting the regular PDP (Product Detail Page) content on Nike.com. The images allow an opportunity to highlight a specified benefit of the garment while bringing a lifestyle quality to Nike's digital retail space.

ART DIRECTION

Art and design direction for GOAT's "Case Study" sneaker unboxing series. Using the lab as the setting, the visual direction playfully references the periodic table and diagrammatical scientific drawings to point out noteworthy details of each shoe as the scientist examines the shoe.

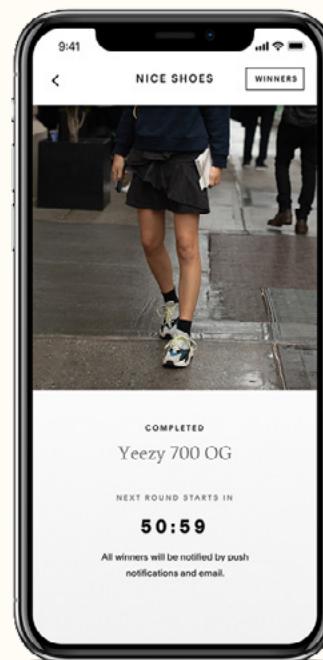

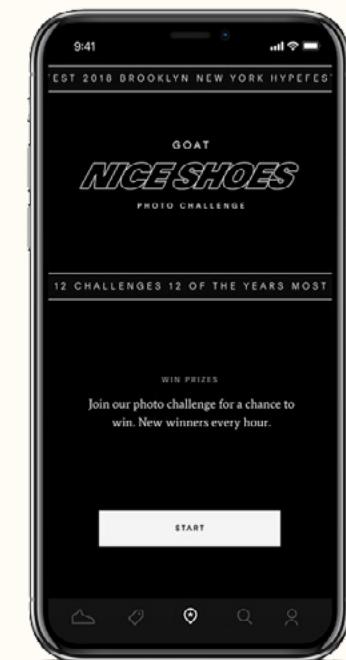

DESIGN & EVENT PRODUCTION

GOAT's "Nice Shoes" activation at Hypefest 2018 in Brooklyn, NY utilized the app as a device for a sneaker scavenger hunt. A large LED screen at the two-day festival displayed real-time information about the game: a countdown ticker, the shoe to look out for at the hour, fun facts about that shoe, and a winner's board.

Fall Winter 2018–19

Lookbook for the renown South Korean brand's FW 2018-19 campaign. The theme for this collection is "Once Upon a Time in the West." Photography of the Mojave Desert in Southern California and stills of desert findings were carefully paired with the fashion.

UNIQLO AIRism

AIRism is Uniqlo's summer innerwear that aids in keeping cool in warm weather. Completed with the team at MP Creative, our challenge was to make AIRism appealing by placing the garments in context to better explain what it is and teach consumers how to wear it. As it is a puzzling idea to wear an additional layer in order to keep cool, we had to ensure that styling (Jodie Barnes) and photography (Geordie Wood) clearly convey airiness and lightness.

UNIQLO Spring Summer 2017

Uniqlo's criteria for Spring Summer 2017 was that the photography express different emotions, yet remain quiet and minimal due to the fact that these images had to live both in-store and editorially in the LifeWear Book (see next page). We decided to have Charlotte Wales shoot the collection because of her fun energy and ability to engage with the models, and the models pose in front of a minimal set that allows for subtle layers of color, shapes, and shadows.

DESIGN

UNIQLO LifeWear Book SS 2017

The LifeWear Book is Uniqlo's globally distributed catalogue with an editorial twist. I spearheaded the new design direction to editorialize the content because the purpose of this book isn't only to sell product, but to also teach readers more about the Uniqlo brand, technology, and lifestyle.

PIN-UP

As graphic designer and content manager at PIN-UP magazine, my involvement oscillated from brainstorming ideas for stories with a multitude of contributors alongside founder/editor-in-chief Felix Burrichter, to organizing and art directing photoshoots. Furthermore, designing the content into print form—expressively yet structurally with design director Dylan Fracareta and Erin Knutson—that significantly added to my already colorful role at PIN-UP.

DROP

Making a splash was never easier with today's new wave of water-resistant furniture. Take the just-released All Plastic Chair designed by Jasper Morrison for VITRA. It's a two-seater deck chair (including "buttocks two-tone," pictured), the All Plastic Chair was inspired by the typology of the classic wooden chair, but updated for the 21st century in rigid high-strength polypolymer for all-weather outdoor comfort. Not to mention waterproofing. Not only is it resistant enough for year-round outdoor use, its solid construction is also sturdy enough to withstand the kind of acrobatics Maira is prone to perform on it. Maira is here defining gravity as a black bikini-clad woman hooded bathing suit by ARAKS and sunglasses by HOOD BY AIR.

KAHLE

ART DIRECTION & CONSULTATION

Since the launch of KAHLE in 2014, Mary (founder) regularly consults with me about branding and her ongoing collection. We develop the basic narrative and mood board, periodically discuss the progress of the designs, and configure a timeline for production. As we near production, my role of creative consultant morphs into that of an art director and designer for the remainder of the cycle of the collection.

PUBLIC WORKS

In fall of 2012, I entered the doors of then 4-years old Public Works as design director to give the gallery's branding a makeover and revisit its mission statement with collaborators Wallo Villacorta and Chris Eichenseer. With a shift in Public Works' identity came a turn in its curatorial direction; it became pertinent I pivot into the curatorial process to ensure that prospective exhibitions' concept and presentation see eye-to-eye with the new branding, and vice versa.

DESIGN

Public Works Publications & Print Collateral

Gridded off of what I call misaligned-alignment, this new design direction for the design-conscious gallery reinforced the usually image-heavy content in a unique and balanced fashion. In this case of misaligned-alignment, the grid's purpose wasn't to lock in the content. Instead it posed as a low fence (or a dotted line), where images and typography can jump about in relation to each other until a balanced design was achieved.

Public Works Website

The default setting of aligning left, right, and center in html is no stranger to Public Works' rebranded website. The shift in alignment allows for each page to have its own flow. To further distinguish one exhibition page from another, a customized wallpaper conversant with the exhibited body of work embellishes the webpage as the backdrop.

Necho Collection

Veronica Corzo-Duchardt

Artist Veronica Corzo-Duchardt's Necho Collection is a set of minimal, atmospheric prints and postcard photo diptychs that retell the story of her grandfather Necho's life across an array of all previous, quotidian possessions and how they map onto his memory, which is lost. Veronica interviewed Necho that spoke about his heritage, the Cuban exile of Leónidas Serratos, and as a career accountant that was in charge of his grandmother's estate to the last day of his life. The collection of abstracted collages and more graphic renderings, Veronica captures these visual histories that are a paper narrative of her familial history.

While each print is elegant on its own, in combination, they reveal complex stylings. While each memory is composed on its own, in combination they trace the same path.

Her process is suggestive of a widespread contemporary condition: today we find ourselves floating between many places, people, and things, perhaps our best way of making sense of our ephemeral memories and intangible experiences is to glean meaning out of material patterns and physical artifacts.

Past Exhibition Observation

ONLY REAL

07 February — 04 April 2014

Peter Jellitsch & Theodore Darst work within simulated realities and spaces using both analog and digital processes. Both artists observe, process, and transcribe intangible elements onto perceptible representations. Jellitsch is concerned with the physical process of visualizing the invisible virtual structures that are prevalent in everyday life. For his Data Drawings, he uses his studio's WiFi bandwidth to generate data that becomes the basis of his

Peter Jellitsch is an artist living and working in Vienna. He holds an M.Arch from the Academy of Fine Arts in Vienna where he has studied Art & Architecture. In 2014 he will be Artist in Residence at the MAK-Schindler House in Los Angeles. Jellitsch has received the Margarete Schütte-Lihotzky Award and the Outstanding Artist Award by the Austrian Federal Ministry of Art and Education. His work is part of permanent collections at the San Francisco

CURATION

Sonnenzimmer—Image Structure (2013)

Sonnenzimmer is a studio comprised of artist Nick Butcher and graphic designer Nadine Nakanishi, who specialize in silkscreen prints and works on canvas. For Image Structure, they stretched their boundaries beyond the stretched canvas by creating quilts that consciously draped over geometric structures designed by Cyril Marsollier and Wallo Villacorta. With this exhibition, the gallery released its first publication and launched its website under the new design direction.

Plural—New Nature (2013)

The multimedia aspect to Plural's work, founded by Jeremiah Chiu and Renata Graw, was fundamental to our conceptualization of New Nature, for which we patched up the windows with black vinyl in order to create a suitable habitat for an all digital show. When the exhibition was open to visitors, they would find the room fully lit with LED screens, light boxes, and an interactive projection that spanned the entire back wall.

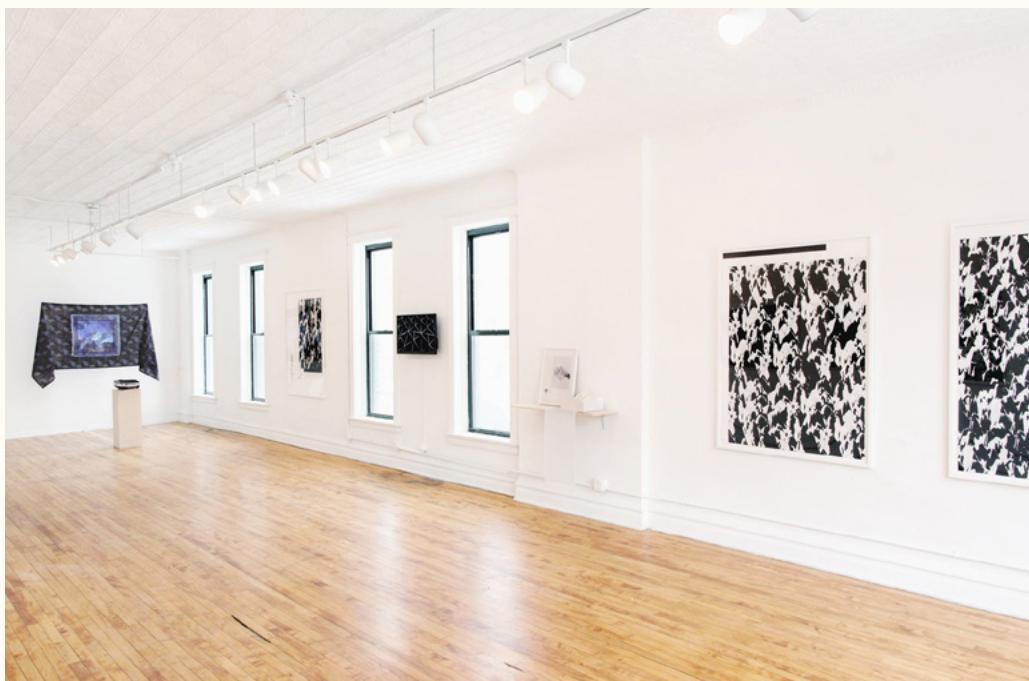

CURATION

Archizines (2013)

To celebrate Chicago's architectural spirit in time with EXPO CHICAGO 2013, I asked London-based curator Elias Redstone if his collection of traveling architecture publications can make a pit stop in Public Works. The collection—called Archizines—featured 80 magazines from over 20 countries, including a few from Chicago. Sponsored by AIA Chicago, the exhibition featured playful, modular structures for reading and lounging, designed by architects Stewart Hicks and Allison Newmeyer.

Peter Jellitsch & Theodore Darst—ONLY REAL (2014)

From the flatlands of Chicago to the distant city of Vienna, came together ONLY REAL, a marriage of works by digital artist Theodore Darst and Austrian architect-turned-artist Peter Jellitsch. While Peter and I wrestled with logistical issues of transporting his work from Vienna to Chicago in addition to the challenge of long-distance communication, Theo and I worked creatively on new pieces for the show, including a site-specific installment. ONLY REAL turned out to be a harmonious amalgam of fine arts and design, digital and analog, the very local and international, making it a personally fulfilling outro as my final exhibition at Public Works.
